

TIPS FOR BETTER Team Management

Promote Inclusive Language

Pay careful attention on how languages is being used, make adjustments and exemplify.

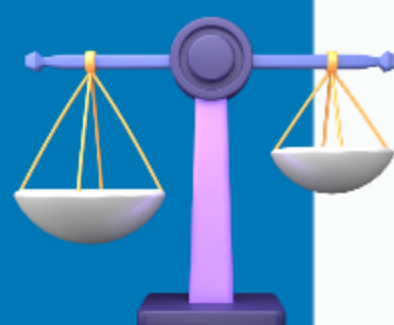

Improve Team Recognition

Focus on both the substance of the recognition and the manner and context in which you deliver it.

Balance Performance with Compassion

Help others see their challenges in a new light.

Get Comfortable with Failure

Rather than focusing on the small, inevitable failures, you can appreciate your overall progress.

Built Luck into Your Career

Connect with others, consider new visions. Embrace changes like a possibility rather than fear.

Don't Follow Your Passion

Consider the activities you keep doing, even though they're hard or painful.

Structure Your Writing Around One Core Idea

A simple framework can improve your writing by presenting your argument clearly, concisely, and engagingly. "One idea" rule. Thus, a pitch, report, presentation, or email should express one main idea.

Own Your DEI Blunder

Fail of inclusion can sometimes backfire. Take responsibility for what you said and did, and listen and respond.
